In accordance with the Bylaws of the Rural Water, Sewer, Gas and Solid Waste Management District No. 16, Cherokee County, Oklahoma, all benefit unit holders are to make request to the Board of Directors for transfer. Application is made by filling out this form. Your application for transfer will be presented to the Board of Directors to be considered for approval. The present owner shall be responsible to the District for the water service and the benefit unit, until the application has been approved by the Board of Directors. No benefit unit will be transferred without the similar equivalence of the legal description that was submitted on the original application for water service. No benefit unit will be transferred until all debts charged to that benefit unit, and owed to the District, are brought current.

I, We, the undersigned applicant acknowledge that we have read, and do hereby understand the Rules and Regulations; Bylaws and Policies of the Rural Water, Sewer, Gas and Solid Waste Management District No. 16, Cherokee County, Oklahoma. Furthermore, we also agree, to adhere to any and all future policies that may be adopted by the Rural Water, Sewer, Gas and Solid Waste Management District No. 16, Cherokee County, Oklahoma or its membership.
